

Training programme on "Forestry sector in Disaster Risk Reduction & Climate Resilience"

Tropical Forest Research Institute (TFRI), Jabalpur in collaboration with National Institute of Disaster Management (NIDM), New Delhi is going to organize five days national level training programme on "Forestry sector in Disaster Risk Reduction & Climate Resilience" at TFRI, Jabalpur on 5-9 August 2019.

The objective of the training program is to enhance the training capacities of officers, scientists and professors from forestry, wildlife, paramilitary forces, disaster management centers and allied organizations/institutes involved in mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery in the event of forestry and wildlife disaster management.